

Nashville Union.

WM. CAMERON & CO., Publishers.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1865.

Our Joe Office.—We are executing every description of plain and fancy Job Printing in the easiest style, and at the lowest prices, at this office.

For sale at this office, one Hand Wagon, nearly new, which will be sold cheap.

For sale at this office, one good Tobacco Sewer. Will be sold cheap for cash.

A Business Directory.

In conformity with a mode of advertising found advantageous, and indeed necessary in other cities, we have determined to commence a Business Directory in the Union, its wide and numerous circulation fitting it peculiarly for the purpose. The Directory will contain the names, addresses and business or profession of all the mercantile heads, at the principal centers of trade, as well as at the commencement of his services as a writer, a gentleman of high official position agreed to release us to him for his "Business Directory." Dry Goods," etc.

The advertisements for cards to appear in the "Nashville Union Directory" will be $15 for one year, or $5 for six months, which is the shortest period for which a card will be taken.

The Criminal Court adjourned this morning. They issued the York House

25 persons charged with treason.

The charge of desertion against George Golden is preferred by a member of Gen. Rousseau's staff. He will be tried and turned over to civil authorities.

Ladies now find an easier assortment of Misses and Boys' Stove Hats and Caps at Green & Green's, 43 College street.

We hope the York House will be visited in true, Nash. You need a first class hotel, and this one, if it could according to the original design, will fill the bill, so far as a house is concerned. With our friend, W. Matt Brown, at the head of it as landlord, it would be complete. What a popular institution it would become!

Brown's New Mills Doctor.—On Monday, May 1st, I will open a branch of my business at Smith's Mill, No. 2, College street. The public can easily get to good mills, etc., per quarter, at all times. Milk received twice a day, also have Depot's at the corners of Summer & Union, and Vine & Cedar streets. The same prices rule at each place.

Gentlemen before purchasing their Bazaar underwear, are respectfully requested to examine the stock at Green & Green's, 43 College street.

A brief communication favoring the election of Col. W. B. Bicker to the United States Senate, will be found on the fourth page.

Cross & Tewell.—This firm has received the Louisville Journal of the 27th, and the Cincinnati Commercial and of the 28th.

Adams' Express.—For New York and Cincinnati papers we thank the Express company.

Prisoner Marshall.—At this office yesterday Mr. Golden was under arrest as a deserter. R. W. Jackson, a rebel soldier of the 14th Tennessee, was in custody for being indicted. He had surrendered up loyalty enough to swallow Robertson county whisky, more than enough. Michael Scotts, one of Mosby's guerrillas was put in prison.

Rebels.—Robert H. Garrett, a citizen of Nashville, was released from the military prison yesterday, the charges against him having been withdrawn.

For Contractors.—Householders should attend Shields & Co.'s sale of furniture and groceries this morning. See the advertisement.

Meeting of the City Council.—The Councilmen of the city of Nashville met yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock, President G. M. Southgate in the Chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Revenue Collector submitted his report, which showed that he had collected since last report the sum of two thousand and three hundred and sixty-nine dollars and eighty-two cents. The Water Tax Collector reported that he had collected, since last report, the sum of one thousand and twenty-eight dollars and ninety cents.

Mr. Muller submitted a report from the special committee in regard to an improvement in the Water-works, in which several important suggestions were made.

Mr. Cheatham read a petition from A. Crocker & Co., asking permission to place an iron box in the market house. Referred to the Market House Committee with full power.

Encouraging to Consumers.—The critic has come at last.

We are pleased to inform our readers that the fall of gold has enabled our friend to buy the great or the small number of certain parties in Louisville, Ky. Any person having permits to ship such goods as may be required, may do so, according to me, at Louisville prices. Common Horses at quotation prices. I have the sample of eight pairs of horses in hand, and will be glad to order filled according to sample.

M. L. ALEXANDER, Agent, 71 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn.

Cincinnati Furniture Store.—Over the auction rooms, 34 Broad-st.—cheapest place buys furniture in the State.

200 barrels choice Extra Family Flour for sale by Adair, Surman & Co. Every barrel warranted.

Dr. COLEMAN.—Transient soldiers and citizens should remember that Dr. Coleman's Prescriptions for Private Diseases, can be procured at his office, 64 North Cherry street, and filled at any respectable drug store in this city or a distance, and a cure effected as speedily and permanent as through the patient was present.

Mr. Muller offered a resolution to the effect, that the Revenue Collector of the Corporation be required to report to the next meeting of this Board the amount of delinquent taxes that may be remaining on the tax books of the Corporation, due and unpaid, for each and every year.

Mr. Cheatham offered a resolution authorizing the erection of a lamp post on the part of Alderman, on the part of the Board of Aldermen, to be placed in a suitable place for Cemetery, containing sixty acres of ground.

The resolution was adopted, and referred to the following committee: W. S. Chapman, T. Muller and Chas. Sayre.
